

ETHIOPIAN AIRLINES GROUP ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

PROTECTION OF THE ENVIRONMENT

Ethiopian Airlines Group is committed to protect the environment by addressing adverse environmental impacts through the adoption of cutting-edge aircraft technology, waste minimization and recycling, optimized flight operations, proper use and disposal of chemicals, utilization of low carbon and sustainable aviation fuels, and other applicable industry related environmental protection initiatives.

COMPLIANCE OBLIGATIONS

Ethiopian Airlines Group is committed to comply with applicable national and international laws, regulations and shall implement programs and procedures to satisfy the relevant legal requirements.

COMMUNICATION (INTERNAL & EXTERNAL)

Ethiopian Airlines Group is committed to communicate its environmental commitment and relevant information to the public, its employees, customers, stakeholders and all concerned as part of its environmental responsibility.

RISK REDUCTION AND EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

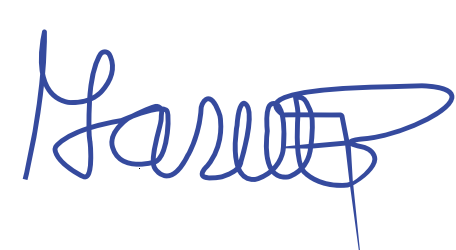

Ethiopian Airlines Group is committed to reduce environmental risks and demonstrate its emergency preparedness in line with its existing emergency preparedness and response plan for different environmental hazards such as fire, spillages etc.

SUSTAINABLE RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Ethiopian is committed to efficiently utilize natural and man-made resources and implement practices to reduce wastage. Besides, the Group encourages the use of sustainable products and services within our supply chain and operational process to reduce its environmental footprint.

CONTINUAL IMPROVEMENT

Ethiopian Airlines Group commits to continually improve its environmental performance through training and capacity building, stakeholder engagement, research and innovation and monitoring performance towards achieving the Environmental goals.

Mesfin Tasew

Group Chief Executive Officer

August, 2024