Ethiopian Airlines and Citi Sign a USD $450m Loan Agreement for Five New Aircraft

- Ethiopian Airlines, Africa's largest carrier, today announce a landmark USD $450 million loan agreement that will finance five new Boeing aircraft: three Boeing 737-8 and two Boeing 777F (Cargo).
- The loan will be secured against the value of the five planes and has been arranged exclusively by Citi's Corporate Banking and Export Agency and Finance teams. It is guaranteed by the Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM).
- Ethiopian Airlines is a longstanding client of Citi's Treasury and Trade Solutions (TTS) business, and their support and partnership have been instrumental to reaching the deal. Different parts of the bank, all working together, reflect Citi's unique ability to offer different banking services to clients with cross border needs.

- Speaker of the House of People's Representatives of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia, H.E. Mr. Tagesse Chafo, and President of the National Assembly of the Republic of Djibouti, H.E. Mr. Dileita Mohamed Dileita and their delegates visited Ethiopian Airlines' Headquarters and held discussions with Executive Management members of our airline.
