Ethiopian Has Signed an Agreement with Ethio Telecom to Expand Its Payment Options

Ethiopian, one of the largest domestic destinations operator in Africa, has developed and launched a new payment gateway system named Fly Gate which manages digital payment transactions. This new IT system is developed by Group CIO and Digital team. Currently, Fly Gate is integrated with three banks and it is strategically expanding the integration with other financial services as well. In line with this, Ethiopian has signed an agreement with Ethio Telecom to integrate Fly Gate and Telebir. Telebir is a mobile money transfer service which is owned and launched by Ethio Telecom. The integration of Fly gate and Telebir will enhance our service by giving additional payment options to our customers which ultimately enhances their satisfaction in our mobile and web applications.
